As a first-year student at Tokyo International University, I bring a wealth of experience in teamwork and leadership to any project. Over the past six years, I've honed my organizational skills, consistently striving for excellence in all endeavors. My passion for videography, photography, and editing video has been my focus for the last four years, during which I've developed technical expertise and cultivated a strong collaborative spirit. Committing to giving my best at every opportunity, I am eager to contribute my skills and enthusiasm to the dynamic field of digital media production.
